

System responsibilities:
System updates database and generate reports, depending on what the user has asked for. For certain reports, system generates them automatically. Reports are published to users at a specific period.

